GOT A VOICE FOR RADIO? AUDITIONS SET MARCH 31
KWPA IS LOOKING FOR ACTORS FOR ITS
ALL-NEW 'OLD TIME RADIO – LIVE ON STAGE!' SHOW

KWPA – Whidbey Public Radio is holding open auditions on March 31 for actors to appear in its all-new, 2011 edition of OLD TIME RADIO – LIVE ON STAGE! This year's all-new show will recreate the golden age of radio with actors reading original scripts from such classic programs as "Boston Blackie," "Fibber McGee and Molly," "Jack Armstrong, The All-American Boy" and "The Romance of Helen Trent."

Auditions will be held Thursday March 31 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Fireside Room (downstairs) at Coupeville United Methodist Church. We are especially looking for several men and women between 25 and 50, an older woman, a teenage boy and a teenage girl. An audition will consist of reading a short excerpt from a script to be used in the show. No experience is necessary, but those selected need to be available for rehearsals throughout April and May.

Those interested in auditioning should send an email to wixvox@gmail.com and we will send you a scheduled audition time. You also may come to the audition without a scheduled time but you may have to wait.

This year's OLD TIME RADIO – LIVE ON STAGE! will be performed on May 21 at South Whidbey High School's auditorium and May 28 at Oak Harbor High School's auditorium. Tickets are $20 and will go on sale online April 1 at www.kwparadio.org and at local stores after April 15. The theme of this year's show is "A Day on the Radio in 1946," and will also feature a 1946 newscast and a big band show with the top hits of 1946.
